

Dentistry Course Options

Improving Dentistry Through Education

RACE approved Dentistry CE

Jennifer Hertzoff, CVT

602-499-0870

Veterinary Dentistry Training

info@vetdentistrytraining.com

www.vetdentistrytraining.com

Fundamentals Lecture - 2 hours

Covers everything the entire staff needs to know about dentistry!

Anatomy of the mouth and oral cavity
Stages of periodontal disease
Identifying pathology and treatment options
Dental x-ray interpretation
Radiation safety
What is appropriate to refer and why
Step-by-step teeth cleaning techniques with videos
Hand Instrument recommendations and usage
Client education and marketing
Safe anesthesia protocols
Home care products
Client education
Questions & answers and much more...

Class notes will be provided

Dental X-ray Positioning Lab - 4 hours

No geometry needed! Up to 10 participants

Participants will learn to take full mouth diagnostic x-rays quickly and easily
Each person will practice with my guidance
I will demonstrate every position on a cat and dog skull
Learn how to identify a diagnostic x-ray and fix mistakes
Basic X-Ray interpretation
How to determine left, right, upper, lower
I bring natural bone skulls with me (Cadaver heads can be used)

Laminated x-ray positioning book and videos will be provided

Periodontal Therapy Lab - 15 min - 1 hour

Any of these topics can be added to Lecture or Lab

*Prophy techniques: - 30 min

-Each participant is shown correct usage and individually evaluated
-Usage of all instruments and equipment
-Oral charting

*Nerve block placement - 15 min

*Extraction and Prophy instrument sharpening - 15 min

Course topics can be customized to suite your clinic's needs.

Complete book of notes is provided if Lecture and Lab are booked